THE SENTINEL.

WM. E. PELL, Proprietor.

From the Newbern Journal of Commerce.

A SHERIFF'S DIFFICULTIES.

MR. EDITOR:—It may be of some interest to the public to learn a sheriff's experience in the performance of his duties. He has every opportunity to understand human nature as it developes itself under the various circumstances of life.

The most irksome duty a sheriff has to discharge is the collection of taxes. Especially has this been the case since the close of the war. With the Union army came crowds of merchants with their goods and wares, who accumulated large gains, and when peace was proclaimed and our civil laws began to operate, were unwilling to bear their part of the public burdens. This was peculiarly the care with those who dealt in ardent spirits, where the profits were large, and the taxes imposed very high. A little experience may serve to point a moral, if nothing else. What I am about to relate will be news only to those outside of Carteret, for here the facts are generally known.

As you are aware, the State Convention, of 1865, levied a tax on liquors, cotton, tobacco, &c. Our citizens paid the tax or gave a bond for the payment of the same, except a firm that came with the war, transacting business under the name of Lambert & Hall. These men sold a large quantity of goods and accumulated a large amount of greenbacks, but as soon as they discovered they had a tax to pay, they promised the Provisional sheriff they "would either pay him or give bond, as honest folks had done." They kept their promise as follows:—A new sign went up over their door with Allen & Suydam thereon, while Messrs. Lambert & Hall sneaked out of town, leaving the sheriff with the bag to hold.

The last Legislature levied a tax for State purposes and provided that the Counties could, if necessary, double or treble the amount for County purposes. Carteret, being in debt, doubled her tax, as compared with that of the State, and the tax list was handed to the Sheriff at the time prescribed by law, to wit: July 1st, 1867. The tax was severe on liquor dealers especially.—Mr. Allen, (Mayor, by order of Gen. Sickles,) of the firm of A. & S., knowing that the old firm of Lambert & Hall had so successfully evaded their obligation, thought he would try the same game. Finding the Sheriff would not trust him and that he could not repeat the Lambert & Hall experiment, he hastened to Brevet Major Van Horn, represented the tax paid as an ex post facto law, and, with other misrepresentations, induced the Major to issue an order to the Sheriff to suspend the collection of taxes until instructions could be received from General Sickles. Had not this gentleman better learn the difference of an ex post facto law before he makes such statements again?—After waiting a long time to hear from Gen. Sickles, I concluded I would go to Raleigh to see the Governor on the subject. He telegraphed and wrote to the General, but failed to get an answer. On the 4th. of September, the Treasurer issued a circular to the Sheriffs and tax collectors concerning the taxes, and informed them if they did not settle with him by the 30th., he would enforce the penalties prescribed by law. He said the Commanding General of the district had been urged to stop the collection of the tax, but had declined to interfere. When I saw this I was greatly surprised, as the Post Commander had interfered with me, and no orders had been received from the General commanding, and knowing, if I did not obey the Post Commander, I would be punished by him, and if I did, I would be punished by the Treasurer, I was in a dilemma. Some advised me one way and some another. I was perplexed in my own mind. After being in so much trouble, I was relieved by receiving a letter from Major Van Horn, dated Sept. 9th., stating that his order had been rescinded. So I proceeded to collect.

I first called on Messrs. Allen & Suydam, thinking their case of more importance than any other, as I had not forgotten the old tricks of Lambert & Hall. But Mayor Allen (Mayor by order of Gen Sickles) is not satisfied yet. He still contends that the tax is an ex post facto law, and employed a lawyer and tried to get an injunction from Judge Green to stop collection. At last, poor Mayor, failing in all his efforts, unlike Lambert & Hall, had to pay his tax. But this was not the only Sample of a yankee trick which I had to contend with, for a Sample in reality tried his hand at the game. He was not as sharp, however, as Messrs. Lambert & Hall, nor was his ingenuity sufficient to master his difficulties. He knew the blow was heavy, but tried to lessen its weight by not giving in the amount of his purchases in 1866. He was trapped and had to pay a double tax. He tried the game again this year but failed. His dollars had to go where they belonged, and will help to defray the expenses of the State, for which he is willing to do so little. Another trick he tried, and that was to be Sheriff; he also failed. When this Sample of human nature again tries to play his tricks, let him apply to those expert gentlemen, Messrs. Lambert & Hall, for a little instruction and a Sample of their experience. Should they refuse him this great boon, he can, like them, change his sign to Kansas, and take to himself the wings of the morning and seek a habitation elsewhere, to a people that like him better than these people do.

Such are some of the trials of a Sheriff, under military and civil law. If you want responsibility and trouble be a Sheriff. If you want to learn human nature and the tricks of mean men, by all means be a Sheriff.

J. HENRY DAVIS,
Sheriff of Carteret.

BEAUFORT, N. C., Sept. 10th. 1867.

P. S.—Since the above was written, Mr. Kinahan, vulgarly called "Dutch Henry," has evaded the payment of his taxes, by "selling out" to the aforesaid lovely Sample of human nature,—thereby defrauding the county and State out of taxes to the amount of $357. J. H. D.

In less than five years, says the Chicago Times, the country will see radicalism reduced to its proper elements. We shall then see the radical ticket composed somewhat as follows:

For President—Escobedo.
For Vice President—Tehee Fung.
For Senator—Cuffee Black.
For Dispenser of Pap—Rev. Slick Sneezer, formerly of Massachusetts.

Henry Ward Beecher is going to have his prayers bound in book form. Why don't he have them dramatized?

THE NORTH AMERICA
LIFE
INSURANCE COMPANY.

New Features and Advantages Which are Known as Belonging to no Other Company in the United States.

THE MANAGEMENT OF THIS COMPANY IS upon the Mutual Benefit System—the accumulated profits going to the assured.

This company makes a special deposit with the Insurance Department of the State, for which Registered policies are issued if desired, countersigned by the Superintendent of the Insurance Department of the State of New York, certifying that such policies are secured by pledge of public stocks.

No other Company gives the assured a guarantee of this character or anything equivalent.

Thirty days' of grace are allowed on all renewed premiums, and the policy remains valid and in full force during that time.

No restrictions as to travel or residence abroad at any season of the year, outside the tropics, which gives a nearly world-wide and unconditional policy.

No higher rate of premium charged for stationary Engineers, Conductors, Baggage Masters, Mail Agents, nor in consequence of change of employment after the policy is issued.

Notes are not required by this Company, but a loan may be obtained on the policy for one third of the annual premium, which is cancelled by the profits applied as dividends.

Joint policies, including man and wife, are issued by this Company, and the amount insured is payable to the survivor on the death of either.

Our dividend, January 1st. 1866, was 45 per cent.

Dividends are declared annually, and paid on settlement of 4th. Annual Premium, on all our plans upon the full amount of premiums received.

Premiums may be paid annually, semi-annually or quarterly.

All policies issued by this Company are non-forfeiting, after two, in some instances, and three annual payments in others.

The per centage of premium receipts in 1865, over 1864, was 251 per cent; which is nearly double that of any other New York company.

Policies incontestable from any cause except on account of fraud.

The Great Southern Tonic,
AND THE MOST PALATABLE STOMACHIC EVER USED,

FOR THE CURE OF DYSPEPSIA, DISORDERed Digestion, Flatulency, Sluggish Circulation of the Blood, Bilious Complaints arising from a morbid condition of the Stomach and Bowels. An Elegant Tonic in debilitated states of the Digestive Organs, or of the system generally.—For the loss of appetite it is the most wholesome and effectual Tonic in the world. It strengthens nature and enables the system to triumph over disease. In wakefulness attended with tremors and general nervous derangement, it is peculiarly adapted, giving strength and tone to the nerves. To delicate Ladies and Children it is invaluable—and in fact whenever a pleasant and agreeable Tonic is wanted, this should be used.

Dr. Johnston, R. Jones, one of the most scientific and well known Physicians in the Southern States, testifies to its great value, besides many others who have been greatly benefited by the use of these Bitters.

THE SENTINEL.

WM. E. PELL, | SEATON GALES, EDITORS.

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 1, 1867.

CO-OPERATION—CONVENTION.

We have not had time to read carefully the editorials of the Old North State, or of the Lincoln Courier, on the subject of the co-operation of the Conservatives and the moderate Republicans. Nor is it necessary that we should reply to them, seeing that their views of our position are based upon a misconception of it, and really make a distinction without a difference. Conservatives may differ, but will not disagree, upon principle.

The Sentinel, for months, has urged co operation with the moderate men of all parties, to defeat the aims and purposes of ultra Radicals, in the re-organization and formation of a Constitution of the State. We have repeatedly, as the Old North State must remember, proposed to the leading Radical paper in this State, that if the Radicals would pledge their party to be content with what Congress had done in regard to disfranchisement, confiscation, &c., and would take the Reconstruction Acts and nothing more, as their platform, and would oppose all State action further than positively required by the Reconstruction Acts, for our part the Sentinel would take no part in the matter. To these propositions, made at sundry times, the Radical press has been silent. We have repeatedly, since that, seeing the Radicals would not commit themselves to a moderate policy, proposed, and advised the people of the State everywhere, that where the Conservative majority in any County gave them assurances of electing a calm, sensible, true Conservative man, by all means to elect a Conservative to the Convention, but, whenever it is doubtful, to co-operate or unite with moderate Republicans everywhere to elect a sound and true man, a moderate Republican, to defeat a Radical.

So far as we are informed of the views of Conservative men throughout the entire State, all of them, who are disposed to take any part whatever in the work of reconstruction, are agreed to carry out the plan. We, therefore, contend, seeing that this arrangement corresponds with the spontaneous sentiments of the Conservatives generally, that if either the Conservatives or the moderate Republicans, or both, should determine to hold a Conservative or a moderate Republican Convention, it would be unwise, injudicious and damaging to the ultimate success of the moderate Republicans, for the Conservatives on the one hand, or the moderate Republicans on the other, to unite with each other in a party Convention. Indeed, it would be so damaging as really to defeat the moderate Republicans in their final success, for there to be any private or public bargain or pledges, the one to the other, of any real party coalition. We are opposed to any bargain, public or private, with moderate Republicans, or any other party, for the purpose of effecting the defeat of the Radicals.

Let Conservatives publicly announce, as we have done, what our purposes are. Let moderate Republicans do the same. But as to any real or supposed bargain, private or public, or for them to meet together in Convention, and thus give room to be charged with a bargain to defeat the Radicals, we will have nothing to do with it.—We hold that every Conservative man should act openly and above board, and never commit himself to any scheme or bargain, with any party or persons, with whom they are not in perfect accord in matters of public policy, simply to effect a special object. We take the broad, open ground, and will act upon it, that wherever we cannot certainly elect a sound Conservative man to the State Convention, we should most certainly vote for a sound and true man, who claims to be a moderate Republican, in order to defeat a vindictive Radical. That is our position, and we will not enter into any Convention or caucus, public or private, with moderate Republicans, nor will we encourage them to meet with us, to enter into any collusion or bargain with them. If other Conservatives do not see into the propriety or absolute necessity of this course, we regret it; we shall not fall out with them, but they will show that they do not understand the real character of the public enemy of peace and reconstruction that we have to contend with.

As to the meeting of a State Convention of Conservatives here on the 16th of October, we do not expect it. Nor will the moderate Republicans have any such Convention. The time is too short, and moreover there is really no necessity for any thing more than precinct or county meetings of the Conservatives, before the election of a State Convention and of the delegates to it.

Our meeting in this city, on Friday night last, has started the ball in the true direction, in our judgment, and we hope the Conservatives of the State will keep it moving.

"Colored men have been enfranchised—the ballot has been committed to them—not because they are black, but because they are loyal."

So says the Wilmington Post. It gives many of its peculiar friends a hard slap. If suffrage has been bestowed by the Congress, on account of loyalty, and not on account of color, the inference, of course, is, that all who are not enfranchised are disloyal. Nine-tenths of the native Radical leaders in this State are disfranchised. Ergo, they are disloyal. We have no disposition to question the conclusion.

A Jacksonville paper is anxious for settlers to take land in Florida at fifty cents an acre.

CONVENTION IN LOUISIANA.

The telegraph announces the fact, which had escaped our recollection, that the election for Convention, under the Reconstruction Acts, commenced on Friday and continued through Saturday, in Louisiana. It seems that barely one tenth of the registered vote in New Orleans has been polled, which leads the Republican, (the Radical organ in the City,) to believe that Convention will fail in the State,—the Reconstruction Acts requiring, in order to validate a Convention, that it shall have a majority of the whole registered vote in its favor.

This is remarkable. If Convention fails in Louisiana, where the negro majority, alone, (to say nothing of the Radical white vote,) is larger than the entire white vote, whose fault will it be? What is the secret of the failure to vote? It looks very much as though it was the deliberate purpose of the white and black Radicals to defeat reconstruction under the Acts of Congress, in the hope of thereby inviting harsher and more stringent measures.

It will be remembered that, some time since, there were similar out-givings as to the design of the Radicals in this State.—The probable result in Louisiana gives coloring to these speculations. They will make a terrible outcry about the danger of "rebels" defeating reconstruction, and endeavor to produce the impression that, if defeated, it will be done by them; and then, for the sake of inviting severer terms, they will imitate the example probably set by Louisiana. It would not surprise us if there were a secret understanding to this effect existing throughout the Southern States. It is well known that the leading ultra-Radicals do not approve the Reconstruction Acts. Grinding and harsh as they are, they are not severe enough for these malignant men. They will be satisfied, so far as their disposition does, with nothing short of the Tennessee programme, with a good sprinkling of confiscation added.—Let us defeat their designs, fellow-citizens, and show to the nation and the world who are the real obstructionists to peace and Union!

RADICAL RESISTANCE TO THE LAW.—We learn, from the Charlotte News, that a negro man was arrested, at Grassy Branch, in Union county, a few days since, under instructions from the Post Commandant at Charlotte, for violation of the military order against carrying concealed weapons. It happened, at the time of the arrest, the negro was in attendance upon a mass meeting of the Leaguers, Red Strings and other orders, at Grassy Branch, and one Hinson, (white,) a deserter from the Confederate army, and a chosen leader of this gang, called upon his comrades to rescue their brother Leaguer. Leading on his deluded followers, he effected the release of the prisoner; but the whole party, consisting of five whites and four negroes, have been taken by the military, and are now lodged in Jail, in Charlotte.

These men should be properly dealt with, as should all violators of the law, and the peace and quiet of society. The Commandant at Charlotte deserves credit for his prompt execution of duty.

This occurrence furnishes additional evidence of the dangerous and demoralizing tendency of these secret semi-military, semi-political associations. If their designs were honest or peaceable, they would not shun the light of day. In every part of the State, those who have been deluded into them, under various pretexts, are abandoning and denouncing them. The time is coming when a connection with these midnight conclaves will be universally regarded as a certain evidence of dangerous and lawless purposes.

THE PROPOSED MASS MEETING.

We beg the Conservative men throughout the County to move at once in the matter of holding precinct meetings, in order to render the Mass Meeting, proposed to be held on Saturday, the 12th. inst., a great success.

Prominent gentlemen will be invited to address the meeting. Let us have a grand out-pouring of the masses, who are opposed to the purposes of ultra-Radicalism, without reference to party or color.

We venture to predict that it will be the largest County gathering ever assembled in this City.

All are invited, who can stand on the platform adopted by the meeting in this City, on Friday evening last.

CONSERVATIVE MEETING IN ROBESON.—The Conservatives of Robeson County held a meeting in Lumberton, last week and appointed Col. M. McRae, T. A. Norment and N. A. McLean, Esq., delegates to the Conservative State Convention, proposed to be held in Raleigh, on the 16th. of October.

They also nominated Rev. W. S. Chaffin and Col. John Leach, as candidates for the State Constitutional Convention, to be called under the acts of Congress.

As we have heretofore said, the intervening time is probably too short to admit of the holding a State Convention on the day alluded to; but we trust that the Conservatives throughout the State will at once hold County meetings, for the purpose of combination and organization.

CONFLICT OF AUTHORITY IN PHILADELPHIA.—Two cases have come up in the Pennsylvania courts involving a conflict between the State courts and the Federal authorities. The commandant of the navy yard at Philadelphia has been served with a writ of habeas corpus in the case of two men enlisted as marines, upon the ground that they are minors. After consultation with the Navy Department Commodore Selfridge responds to this writ, that without intending any contempt to the court, he declines to obey the writ under orders from a superior officer. An attachment has been issued against the Commodore, and set for hearing on Saturday next. These are test cases, which the Department, for the protection of the naval service, is bound to resist.—National Intelligencer.

MILITARY COMMISSIONS.—Gen. Schofield has never, since the passage of the reconstruction acts by Congress, tried any one by military Commission.

For the Sentinel.

THAT CONVENTION—ITS ORATORS.

"Gen." W. W. Holden, (so-called—by himself) seems to have been chief manager; or, in more homely phrase, chief cook and bottle washer of the great Convention.—This eloquent Demosthenean puts to shame, by his pungent Philippics, the great Athenian. In his arraignment of Govs. Worth and Graham, and Vance, the Senior and Junior Editors of the Sentinel, original secessionists, slave traders, "unrepented copperheads, rebels and traitors," and Macedonians generally, smiting around him hip and thigh, thrusting his steel permissively under the ribs of friends and foes, he certainly out-Herodes Herod. But it might be expected, He is "both bold and honest." He "knows" it, and says it—and who has a better right to know than himself? Or who else could so modestly, and with such eminent propriety, proclaim it? He hath a trumpet of his own, and wheretore should he not blow it, as he lists? This is not the first time that he has vaunted his own bravery. A few months ago his trumpet gave an alarming sound. With a double tan-ta-ra it gave out sonorously, that "there was iron in his blood!" In those hurly burly times, it did not take much to startle our excitable people from their propriety. A blast from Gabriel's old tooter, ringing out its "bark from the tombs," could scarcely have stirred them more. They knew that the blood of this "bold" man was up—and that there was iron in it! Brave men, even, held their breath for a while, and cast anxious glances around, wondering what was coming now. They had heard of the

"troubles that environ
The man who meddles with cold iron,"

and stood aghast. Was San Salvador brewing some new earthquake? Or what the wonder was to pay? Pale were their faces, and great was the shaking about the knees, till some one happened to remember his piteous appeals to Congress to keep up and increase the military establishment among us, to protect, with their cold iron, the "persecuted and prosecuted" saints. They were exposed to merciless rapine and ravishment, to murder and sudden death, and other unmentionable disasters, and the poor innocents had no peace of their lives, by day or by night! This remembrance gave the frightened people relief from their fears. It was not, then, that the iron in his own blood was to assume the shape of a murderous dagger, to be grasped by his own most dangerous Ex-Gubernatorial hand—but only iron by proxy. They soon also began to suspect that it might be a pleasant little bit of irony, said to be sometimes indulged in by this serio comico, and very facetious, gentleman, when he occasionally lays aside his greatness, and the memory thereof, and condescends to amuse himself with the common people—as great men and ex great men frequently have done before him. These ironical utterances, which old Noah Webster defines to be "expressing one thing, and meaning the opposite," have been known to involve our facetious friend in some very queer but painful perplexities.

So, the alarm alluded to soon subsided, and each man, quietly gathering himself together, betook himself to his accustomed business, pretty well satisfied that if there was "iron in the blood" of that mock-dangerous hero, it was sure to stay there; so long at least as the soldiers carry their cold iron about on their shoulders—and give him protection. This is almost equal, in lifting him up, to the famous blockade brandy, so kindly administered by Governor Vance. It is nearly equal to usquebaugh, and maketh a man very bold, even though he was quaking with fear.

"I esteem it as my best and highest credentials to have the favor of the loyal, honest and virtuous people of the State; (Robespierre called them "Pouvres peuples! Peuples vertueux"! when he meant to betray them,) that such persons (Macedonians, and others) do assail me. I defy them, sir politically, morally and personally. (Please don't!) I can afford to say that, as a man and a gentleman, (hear! hear!) when I take a colored friend (and brother) by the right hand (or the left either) and call him politically and civilly (and sneakingly) my equal, I can afford to say, that I can look with contempt, if I choose, upon all such people as these secessionists, (gracious!) and traitors, who thus assail me."

Here is a logical "concatenation accordin," that would puzzle old Hedge, or Aristotle himself. It is as clear as mud, and clearer too. When he takes his man and brother by the right hand—the right hand, mind you—he feels so proud that he can look down with contempt on Gov. Worth, William A. Graham, Zebulon B. Vance and all the Macedonian phalanx. So he can, if he gets on a fence. But is it a supposable case that he can feel contempt for any body? Brave words can be pumped out of very weak stomachs. That old and incorrigible sinner, Jack Falstaff, said he was "both bold and honest!" But was he?

"Now, sir, I tell this Convention, and I tell these unrepentant copperhead rebels and traitors, that they are nothing, (Oh dear!) and that the nation is all in all. I tell them further, that if they dare to provoke the Republican party of this State, by persistence in their infernal schemes of rebellion, (pretty cool for one who taught them) and by the perpetuation of those sentiments and principles (taught by him) which dragged this people from their lofty height of prosperity and honor and involved all in common ruin, that, so help me Heaven! I shall insist upon it that the nation shall hold them to the most rigid and terrible responsibility for their crimes." There now! hope you feel better after getting this load of peccant humors off your stomach. It will be a very dirty act for you to insist on the confiscation of the estates of your old friends and followers, whom you seduced and victimized, to be divided out among the raw recruits whom you have gathered around you, and who are stupidly credulous if they trust that you will be more true to them than you have always been to those who have given you their faith,—and have always been betrayed. No, sir, they do not trust you. They only use you.

He talk of holding those whom he has seduced, and misled and ruined, "to the most rigid and terrible responsibility for their crimes!!" He who led them to the brink, and with diabolical malignity pushed them in, can now talk of confiscation! Can now "take a colored friend by the right hand, call him his equal, and then look with contempt, if he chooses, upon all such people as these secessionists and traitors!" He is slightly mistaken. He cannot look with contempt on "such people." He cannot look with contempt on anybody. If he can, it will be only in looks. He cannot, if he tries, feel contempt for any human being.

Shall we madly and blindly follow that leader again? on pain of contumacy and confiscation! Sir, we dare not. We have done it once too often already. We dare not trust you. We have tried that—and we are ruined! Excuse us if we say that we know you too well to work in your harness, again. We have already tested your skill at handling the ribbons—too far for our good.

It is an old story—that about Phaeton.—The crack brained charioteer, ambitious, rash, perhaps honest, certainly "bold," full of conceit, fancied himself equal to Apollo in managing the wild horses of the Sun.—By paternal indulgence, and to try the mettle of the youth, the reins were placed in his hands—and he played the devil before you could say Jack Robinson. Helter-skelter, zig-zag, up and down, hither an yan, plunging and floundering,—pawing and snorting of steeds—gee up and gee-ho-ing of charioteer—and wrathfully rolling and sputtering of the sun—crash, dash, splash, down came all in one wild fiery conjumblement together, hissing hot, sprawling over a great dismal swamp somewhere in Africa—searing and scorching the natives, until, as the story goes, their color was changed to ebony black—and the race became what the X. P. G., when he did not love them so well as he does now, called "kinky heads." Will other white men or black men trust him again, with the ribbons? If they do, they are neither white nor black, but decidedly green—greener than that grass. S.

REGISTRATION AND OTHER MATTERS IN DAVIDSON.

THOMASVILLE, N. C. Sept. 28.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—I have the honor to transmit to you the final results of registration in the county of Davidson, as follows:

	Whites.	Blacks.
First precinct,	1,188	456
Second precinct,	967	216
	2,155	672
Total		2,827.

As far as my opportunities have permitted, I have made it my special business to ascertain, correctly, what were the political opinions of the great mass of the people, with whom I have come in contact. And I find there are three classes, two of whom are united in sentiment, and agreeing perfectly as to the most consistent course to pursue, that will hasten a speedy reconstruction of the country, and result in peace, quietude and harmony.

The classes referred to are divided in the following manner:

First, Those who were Union men, from principle, throughout the war, from the beginning to the ending.

Second, Those who advocated the doctrine of the right of secession from principle and sustained the same, until convinced of their error, by the success of the federal arms.

Third, That class of miscreants who were the most rampant secessionists before the war and during the war, who, at the very moment secession became below par, had the impudence to come out before the people and swear they were, and had been, Union men all the time, and "to-day wanted it distinctly understood that they stood on the Radical platform," when the whole country is suffering from the venomous pollution of their teachings and contaminating influence over a certain class of the poor ignorant freedmen.

The two first classes referred to will leave nothing undone to restore the country, by the acceptation of the present Congressional reconstruction plans, as the only means of a speedy restoration of government. That portion who had been the Union men during the war, express no enmity at their friends who had erred from principle, and have the manhood in their hearts to make "confession of guilt," and lend their aid towards the restoration of the country; and in my opinion these two elements will be successful.

The third class—woe be unto them, as they are spurned by the other two elements, like dogs, their Radicalism notwithstanding! If there is any contempt in the world, 'tis for that individual whose every action is based upon deception, and who will stoop to his low deeds with the grace of a "dancing master," until they have become so corrupted that scarcely an intelligent person of good morals can be found in the County, who would swear they would believe them on oath. Yet, they have the brass in their face to intrude anywhere—especially if there is a "law" about, and if by their impertinence there is an opportunity of crowding themselves in as the "grand high coo-a lo-rum" of the day. I don't wish to be personal; but there is an individual in our county, (so I am informed,) who has the honor of officiating as Agent for the "Freedman's Bureau," who states that he filed the "Iron-clad" with certain exceptions, etc. Now the weakness and inconsistency of this speech need no comment, more than to refer to an amusing anecdote which occurred at "Post Headquarters," with one of the Rockingham Leaguers, who very civilly requested of the post Commander to allow him to make a few alterations in the oath, and then he could "take it." To which the Post Commander replied, that he was "not here to change the laws of Congress," and that if he could take it, "TAKE IT as it is, and if he could'nt, to go to——— and get out of there." So the story goes. I think the Judge would have probably met the same fate, on such an application. However, I feel it to be my duty to procure a copy of this extraordinary favor in the Judge's behalf, for future reference, and I shall undoubtedly do it.

There are other points I would refer to, but the time has not yet arrived.

You are at liberty to use this letter in any way you may see proper.

Very Respectfully,
JOHN T. CRAMER,
Chairman Board of Registration.

"THE STANDARD."

MESSRS. EDITORS:—You have good reasons for not noticing the Standard.—So far as the Editor is concerned, I could "a tale unfold." But I do say that the Senior of the Standard, in the potico of his own house, did, in September 1865, declare to me, that certain persons, with whom he is now affiliated, had committed a great blunder in going for negro suffrage. Now where is the Senior? Where are his addresses to the Conventions? Echo answers where. Probably J. Fontleroy Taylor—sometimes called Jim or Jeems—can tell.—The Senior was dead opposed to negro suffrage. He thought his young friend, W. C., had made a —— mistake; thought he could rectify it, &c.; thought his friend (in a horn) V. C. B. was no better than he ought to be. He thought amen! So be it. There is no use, however, in showing up the inconsistencies of the Standard—his files will do that. Gen. Dockery—the noble old Roman—whom "Billy" used to call "gwanny," and my friend C. L. H., of Rutherford, can give his political pedigree. B.

BAD NEWS FOR THE BUREAU PETS.—An order has been issued from the War Department directing all carriages and spring wagons of every description, except the prescribed medical wagon, and all ambulances excepting those known as the Wheeling or Rucker pattern, together with the harness used in connection therewith, which belong or pertain to the Quartermaster's Department, to be immediately turned into the most convenient depot or depots of said department, with a view to their sale at public auction; and hereafter no ambulances, carriages, or spring wagons will be purchased or manufactured except by order of the War Department.

It is said that domestic affairs are improving in Chicago—the marriages are becoming most as numerous as divorces.

TO THE
COLORED BAPTISTS
Of North Carolina.
IT has been deemed proper to call upon you to send delegates to a meeting to be held with the first African Church in Goldsboro', on Friday before the 3rd Sunday in October, for the purpose of organizing a general association of the colored Baptists of this State. Each Church composed of colored Baptists, and every Church that has a colored membership, are requested to send two delegates to this meeting. We deem it unnecessary, dear brethren, to do more than to call your attention to the importance of some such organization as we propose forming. We need it for the improvement of our ministry and the dissemination throughout the State of the time-honored principles of our beloved Church.

IMPORTANT TO CAROLINA SHIPPERS.
THE NEW
Baltimore and Carolina Grand Trunk
FREIGHT LINE,
VIA PETERSBURG, VA.,
Comprising the following great Freight Routes:
THE POWHATAN
Steamboat Company's Freight Line of Steamers,
PETERSBURG AND WELDON,
RALEIGH AND GASTON,
NORTH CAROLINA,
WESTERN NORTH CAROLINA,
WILMINGTON AND WELDON,
ATLANTIC AND NORTH CAROLINA,
WILMINGTON AND MANCHESTER,
CHARLOTTE AND SOUTH CAROLINA R. R.,
And their connections.

Time Quick and Rates Low.
THIS NEW TRUNK LINE FORMS A GREAT FREIGHT ROUTE between Baltimore and Weldon, Warrenton, Raleigh, Hillsboro', Lexington, Salisbury, Morganton, Charlotte, Lincolnton, Goldsboro', Newbern, Beaufort, Wilmington, Chesterville, Winsboro', Columbia, Summerville, Manchester, and all intermediate points on and near these great Railways and their connections.
The Powhatan Steamers connect at Petersburg with Petersburg Railway for all points in the Carolinas. Cars are run alongside of Steamers' Wharf and goods transferred with careful handling. Cars are run through without breaking bulk between Petersburg and Raleigh Charlotte, Goldsboro', Wilmington, &c. &c. This Inland Line possesses many advantages over a Sea Route. Marine risk is small and insurance is comparatively nothing. The Wharf of the Powhatan Steamers being situated in the very centre of the great shipping district of Baltimore, renders it convenient to shippers, and drayage is very small.
Great attention paid to consignments of Cotton, Corn, Wheat, Rosin, &c. &c. All produce forwarded at the lowest possible rates.
☞ To insure transportation over this Inland Fast Line mark all goods, whether Northward or Southward bound, "VIA PETERSBURG."
☞ Freight landed in Baltimore day following delivery to the Steamers.
Through Receipts are given and fixed rate per 100 pounds guaranteed both ways ☞ Rates in every case same as via Bay Line and Portsmouth to and from Baltimore, Philadelphia and New York.
N. B.—With regard to last named points, freight is forwarded to and from Petersburg by Philadelphia and N. Y. Steamers.
For rates and all further information, apply to any Freight Agent on the Line, or at the

THE SENTINEL.

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 1, 1867.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—To the Colored Baptists of North Carolina: Meredith Ligon, and others, Goldsboro.

Builders' Materials, Mechanics' Tools, &c: Mitchell, Allen & Co., Newbern.

The attention of our Merchants, and others, is specially directed to the grand auction sale of Dry Goods, Clothing, Fancy Goods, Notions, Boots, Shoes, Hats, Caps, &c., by Messrs. James & Co., Auctioneers and Commission Merchants, 78 and 80 Sycamore Street, Petersburg, to take place on Thursday. The Catalogue is extensive and attractive and the terms liberal. See advertisement.

A magnificent stock of Dry Goods and Notions may be found at L. E. Heartt's old and popular stand. Give him a call.

We direct attention to the business Card of Col. Wm. Lamb, of Norfolk, whose enterprize and go-ahead-itiveness we have frequently had occasion to commend in the highest terms. Mr. Dunn, his agent for this State, is at present in the City, and we are gratified to learn that Col. Lamb, himself, will probably visit us during the week.

MAYOR'S COURT.—Leonard Morgan, colored, charged with stealing a horse from N. W. Earp and Berry Denton, in Nash Co., was returned to the Superior Court.

Henry Liles, colored, 40th. U. S. Regiment, arrested by the night police for being in the City without permission from the Military authorities, was lodged in the Guard House, and turned over to the Military.

WAKE SUPERIOR COURT.—This tribunal is in session the present week,—his Honor, Judge Fowle, presiding. His charge to the Grand Jury, on yesterday, was clear, comprehensive and able.

THE PLACES of business of our Jewish citizens were closed, on yesterday, in commemoration of the day,—the commencement of the Hebrew year.

THE CIRCUS.—John Robinson's Mammoth Circus and Menagerie will arrive this morning, and the young folks (and a good many of the old ones, too,) are on the qui vive. A grand procession through the streets will take place at 10 o'clock. The place of exhibition will be in the old Baptist Grove, where the government corral has been located for the last year or two.

WE HAVE rarely seen our streets present a busier aspect than they did on yesterday. An unusually large number of our country friends were in town, and the merchants appeared to be doing a driving business.—Many of the firms in Petersburg, Norfolk, Newbern, &c., are represented, and their agents are mixing freely with our people,—we trust to the mutual advantage of all.—If the country was only at rest, what thriving times we might have. The disposition of the people to work, and to labor in earnest, in all the branches of Industry, was never so great.

WE HAD the pleasure of a call, on yesterday, from Capt. A. W. Bridgers, of Franklin, who is connected with the excellent and enterprising firm of Cowand & Harriss, General Commission Merchants, Norfolk, Va. Capt. B. visits Raleigh for the purpose of representing the interests and making known the facilities of the House. We commend him and it to our Merchants and dealers. Col. Cowand, of the Firm, will be remembered as the Commanding officer of the 32nd. N. C. T., and as temporary commander of Grimes' Brigade. Capt. Bridgers was an officer in the same Brigade.

DIE CHARLESTONER ZEITUNG.—We have received the prospectus of a new German paper, bearing the foregoing title, which is to be published weekly in the City of Charleston, by C. G. Erckmann & Co., and edited by Gen. Jno. A. Wagener. It is to be devoted to the interests of the State, in encouraging immigration and industrial pursuits. The subscription will be $3 per annum. We commend the enterprise heartily. Our German fellow-citizens constitute an excellent class of our population, and we should be glad to hail large accessions to their numbers in the South.

LOUISVILLE, KY.—A former citizen of Raleigh, now residing in Charleston, writes as follows to a gentleman in this City:

"Louisville is the finest city I have ever seen. Many of the streets are splendid and exceed Fayetteville street in the Oak City. The mansions of the wealthy are palaces. It certainly is the most moral of all large cities that I have ever seen. The markets are large, numerous and bountifully supplied. The butcher's meat is No. 1. and not excelled even in England. Rents are very high; a good three story store, like McKimmon's, bringing $5,000 per annum. A good brick cottage, with 3 or 4 rooms, brings $30 per month. The city is very level, very clean and orderly. Between three and four thousand dwellings were built here last year and they were filled immediately."

ORDER IN REGARD TO TAXES.

The following order has been issued from District Headquarters.

So far as North Carolina is concerned, we are at a loss to see what has elicited the order. No taxes are imposed or collected in this State, except such as are necessary to meet the current expenses of the State and local governments. Representations to the contrary, so far as our observations extend, instead of being "well-founded," are malicious, though, doubtless, the authorities have been imposed upon by them.

HEADQ'RS SECOND MILITARY DISTRICT,
Charleston, S. C., Sept. 21, 1867.

GENERAL ORDERS,
NO 92.

1. Numerous and well-founded representations having been made that illegal and oppressive taxes have been imposed in different sections of the States of North and South Carolina, it is ordered that the collection of taxes be suspended in the following cases:

First. Whenever any tax is, or shall be, imposed—otherwise than under the authority of the Government of the United States—which, by the terms of the Act imposing the same, or by the action of the public authorities thereunder, shall apply to any property or right parted with, or any transaction made and completed, prior to the adoption of the Act authorizing the same.

Second. Whenever the power of Congress to regulate commerce with foreign nations, and among the several States, is impugned by the imposition of taxes discriminating in commercial transactions, in favor of resident citizens, and against the citizens of foreign nations or of other States of the United States.

Third. Whenever any tax is or shall hereafter be imposed, for the purpose of discharging any obligation contracted in aid and furtherance of the rebellion against the government and authority of the United States, or to re-imburse the public treasury, or any local body, or public officer, or other person, for any expenditure on account of any such obligation or pretended obligation.

II. Commanding Officers of Posts are authorized to suspend the collection of any tax embraced in paragraph I, reporting action, and the grounds, and all proofs relating thereto, to these Headquarters.

By Command of Brevet Major General ED. R. S. CANBY:

LOUIS V. CAZIARC,
Aid-de Camp,
Actg. Asst. Adjt. Genl.

AN OUTRAGE.—During the war the residence of the Hon. David L. Yulee, at Fernandina, was sold by the Government for non-payment of taxes. About a year ago, a certificate of redemption was granted to Mr. Y., and the money paid (seventeen hundred dollars) returned to the purchaser.

During this entire time, a party of radical adventurers have remained in possession of the premises, refusing to obey all legal civil processes served upon them.

On Tuesday night last, Mrs. Yulee took possession of the premises, and a number of evil-disposed persons raised a mob and rocked the house, breaking window panes, sash, &c. The Sheriff of the county arrested some of the rioters, and he in return was arrested by virtue of an order issued by Paul Crippen, Commissioner of the United States District Court, and lodged in jail. On Thursday morning the Sheriff was released on parole.

Judge Long went to Fernandina on yesterday morning, and we doubt not will set matters to rights.

Mrs. Yulee, notwithstanding the threats and riotous conduct of our recently arrived citizens, still remains in possession of her residence.—Gainesville (Fla.) New Era, 21st.

A SPIRITED FRACAS.—Yesterday quite a rich scene took place in one of the saloons of this city. A Yankee captain from Illinois walked in and said he could whip any man who was not a good Radical and favorable to negro suffrage. A private in company A, from New Jersey, considered himself highly insulted by this remark, and as he was a good Conservative, he pitched into the captain, knocked him down, and kicked him out of the saloon in short order.—Lynchburg Republican.

A gushing being at Lancaster, Pa., sends us word that Thad. Stevens is better. "His own will," says the admiring agent, "even surmounts disease." We further learn that T. S. is an "old Commoner," and that he will go to work on his various mild little schemes so as to have them ready to spring on Congress at the opening of the session. "T. S.," the agent says, "has not left Lancaster this summer, although he had intended a visit to his furnace and to the Upper Lakes." There is perhaps more likelihood of his visiting the furnace in conjunction with the lower lake.—N. Y. World

The Inquirer, at Gonzales, Texas, says an old freedman told his old master that his sable highness was getting too feeble to work, and wanted to be elected county judge. "But," said his employer, "you must know the law of the land before you can act as judge; and you can neither read nor write." "Oh, well, dat makes no difrance, Mas. J., I wants de office, and den I wants you for my clerk. You can do all de writin."

At a recent wedding in Scranton, Pa., the bride received $10,000 worth of presents. Good place to get married.

It is declared that the President has decided to reopen the Fitz John Porter case and to give him a new trial.—National Republican.

The Home Jenkins announces that the author of "Beulah" and "St. Elmo" is engaged to a merchant in Alabama.

Chief Justice Chase has expressed his intention of presiding at the November term of the Circuit Court at Richmond, when Mr. Davis will be tried.

CLOTHING! CLOTHING!!

OUR STOCK OF FALL AND WINTER CLOTHing, for Men and Boys, is now in store and ready for inspection.

It has been our custom for many years to have our goods cut, trimmed and made in the best manner, believing it to be to the interest of both the buyer and seller.

With HARDING, BALDWIN & Co. in New York, for Manufacturers, we can safely assert that our advantages for selling reliable goods at low prices are not equaled, in our line, in North Carolina.

Citizens and strangers will always find our stock full and desirable.

Particular attention is called to our stock of

GEN. SCOTT'S WILL—HAYTI NEWS.

NEW YORK, Sept. 30, M.

Gen. Scott's will is just probated. He bequeathes the Pulaski sword to West Point, and that worn in the Mexican war to his grandson, Winfield Scott Hoyt.

Hayti advices of the 8th. say that the country is in extraordinary agitation. Gold is fabulously high. Provisions are scarce; flour was selling at $20 in gold

JURY ORDER BY GEN. MOWER—THE LOUISIANA ELECTIONS.

NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 30—M.

Gen. Mower has issued an order modifying the military orders relative to juries in the State of Texas, so as to render it practicable to obtain juries in that State. The order requires jurors to be drawn from those registered, and none others, and no other oath is required but that of registration.

The election passed off quietly both days. No official returns are yet in. The total vote of the 4th. municipal district footed up 1,360. The Republican despairs of the vote being large enough to render the election valid. It says the white vote is about one-tenth of the whole. The entire vote of the city is estimated at 12,000.

THE NASHVILLE ELECTION

NASHVILLE, Sept. 30, P. M.

All is perfectly quiet. The Saturday voting was confined mainly to the negroes and strangers.—The mayor receded from his determination of holding the polls, under the charter of 1858, but the present officials will hold until ousted by the Courts or bayonets.

RICHMOND, Sept. 30, P. M.

The registration for final revision will be opened by order on the 8th. inst.

Shanks, of the Congressional Committee to investigate the treatment of prisoners, addressed a crowd of blacks this evening at the capitol.

The split in the Republican party here is becoming more marked. The Republican ward meetings, called for to-night, are repudiated by Hunnicut, the acknowledged leader of the blacks, who, in a speech this evening, warned the blacks to beware of northern dough-faces who have settled among them and pretend to be Republicans

WASHINGTON NEWS.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 30—P. M.

The Nicaragua Minister presented letters of recall to the President to-day. The parting ceremonies evidenced good feeling between the countries, and a strong personal friendship between the President and the Minister.

The report of the Commissioner of Agriculture, for August and September, represents that the wheat crop was not as large as anticipated in July. Corn promises a fair crop if the frosts do not injure it

The army worm made its appearance in the cotton fields about the first inst., and caused considerable apprehension in some sections for the safety of the crop.

Potatoes are rotting badly in many of the large growing States, and the yield will be less than last year.

The wool clip is from 5 to 10 per cent. less this year than last.

James M. Murphy, a Nashville negro, has been appointed, by the Sergeant at arms of the U. S Senate, a member of the Capitol police force.

Agressure is bearing to secure a modification of the recently promulgated cotton regulations, numerous letters representing that the routine for obtaining permits is impracticable in many instances, and generally inconvenient.

The Treasury Department has the matter under consideration.

ROW THREATENED.

SAVANNAH, Sept. 30, P. M.

Disturbances were threatened between the country and the Conservative City blacks to-night.

Gen. Anderson, Chief of police, has given orders to arrest every disorderly person, regardless of color or politics. The military are in the arms, but their services will probably not be needed. A large number of arrests of rioters and several of the ringleaders has taken place, and they will probably be sent to Fort Pulaski by the military.

One Bradly, a Boston mulatto, who has been several times arrested by the military and civil authorities for swindling negroes and exciting disturbances, had a gathering here of some thousand negroes, mostly from the country to-day.

In the course of a harangue against the white men, and in favor of the distribution of the lands, the conservative negroes interrupted, when a melee occurred. A large force of police charged through the crowd, the military came to their aid, and together, they cleared the square.

Muskets were brought in by a large band of country negroes, which were taken by the police and turned over to the military.

A large proportion of the colored population disapprove of Bradley and threaten to assassinate him.

MARRIED,

In Halifax county, on the 17th ult., at the residence of Mr. William R. Sledge, by the Rev. J. W. Heptinstall, Mr. William Bustin, Jr., to Miss Bettie W. Taylor, of Williamsburg, Va.

At Millwood Church, Va. on the 18th ult., by the Rev. Joseph Jones, Major John Eaten Cook, to Miss Mary Frances, daughter of the late Dr. Robert Page, of Saratoga, Clarke county, Va.

OBITUARY.

In this City, on Sunday morning, the 29th September, 1867, Maggie Carter, infant daughter of Carter B. and Marguerite F. Harrison, aged fourteen months and twenty-four days.

"Take heed that ye despise not one of these little ones: for I say unto you that in heaven their angels do always behold the face of my Father which is in Heaven."

The friends of the family are invited to attend her funeral from the Episcopal Church at half past 10 o'clock, this, Tuesday, morning October 1st, 1867.

Our whole community was cast into gloom by the dark shadow of death which fell suddenly and unexpectedly upon the domestic hearth of our much respected townsman, John D Flanner, Esq.

On the 20th day of September the sad news flew like lightning over our city that Mrs. NANCY J. FLANNER had departed this life, and the deepest sympathy was felt for her bereaved husband and five orphaned little ones. She was raised from infancy, by her adopted father, A. T. Jenkins, Esq. Cut down thus in early life, in her 35th year, her death has shrouded two households in the deepest mourning.

Her funeral ceremonies took place at her husband's residence, and the cortege which attended her remains to the grave was one of the largest ever formed in this city.

Every cheek was bedewed with tears as the wails of those stricken ones were heard in lamentations over a mother's grave.

Mrs Flanner was one of the most devoted wives, a most affectionate mother and a most candid and faithful friend.

She has left a most interesting family to mourn her death, and a large circle of friends to weep over the rupture of their social ties.

But they have hope in her death to cheer and comfort. Among her last utterances were the triumphant words—"Glory Hallelujah!" And the shout of victory thus begun on earth, was, no doubt, continued in heaven, "in presence of the angels of God."

Thus, the faces of our loved ones which, like the rays of the stars, mingle with the gloom around us are continually growing fewer, darkness thickens, and we too shall soon follow them and enjoy the morning light of eternal day

"Thus star by star declines,
Till all are passed away,
As morning high and higher shines
To pure and perfect day;
Nor sink those stars in empty night
But hide themselves in heaven's own light."

Newbern, N. C. C.

SAMUEL HAIRSTON, eldest son of Peter W. Hairston, of Baltimore, (lately of Surry in Carolina) died of an attack of typhoid fever on the 5th ult., at the residence of T. H. Hairston, Esq., in Henry county, Virginia. He was born on the 16th of September, 1850, and would have been seventeen years of age in a few days. And indeed will be the hearts of all who knew this young man upon receiving the intelligence of his untimely death. Gifted by nature with qualities which were calculated to attract the attention of all whom he met, he won upon their affection and made friends of all who associated with him. Modest in his deportment, he was never prominent by choice, yet when called upon he always cheerfully contributed to the pleasure of the social circle, and envinced it by his cheerful conversation and ready appreciation of humor. Dutiful and respectful to his parents, kind and affectionate to his brother and sister, warm and devoted in his friendships, of genial temper and cheerful disposition, having a high sense of honor, he exhibited all the instincts of a true gentleman, and so demeaned himself as to elicit the admiration of his associates and the respect of all who knew him, and it may truly be said that he gave an earnest of being a prominent and useful citizen had his days been spared. But the great Arbiter of our destinies has otherwise willed it, and we are left to lament his loss, and unite our tears with those of his sorrowing relations. W.

In Houston, Texas, on Friday, the 27th of Sept. of Yellow Fever, Mr. JOHN ALSTON ALLEN, son of Col. C. B. Allen, of this city, in the 24th year of his age. He was one of the telegraph operators at Houston. Thus have the fondest hopes of a devoted father, and brothers and sisters been crushed by the untimely end of this promising young man. He had gone to Texas as others of our young men have gone to build up his fortune, that he might be a comfort in the future to his friends; but Death has destroyed all these bright expectations, showing us how utterly decisive, and uncertain are all human hopes. But John A. Allen was a Christian, and had taken care to lay up sure treasure in Heaven. Therefore, when the fell destroyer came, he was ready, and his body awaits the waking of the last trump on the morning of the resurrection. Let his friends follow him, as he followed Christ! P.

DRY GOODS.

NEW GOODS! NEW GOODS!!

NEW FALL AND WINTER GOODS FOR 1867.

Old Prices Reached the City and Stopped at

A. CREECH'S,

R. SMITH'S CORNER,

Fayetteville Street.

I AM NOW RECEIVING MY FALL AND WINter Stock of

Staple and Fancy Dry Goods,

And I can say, with safety, that I have one among the largest and most complete stocks that has ever been brought to this City, either before or since the war,—embracing almost any and everything suitable for Ladies' and Gentlemen's wear.

CALICOES, 10, 12½, 15, and 18 cents per yard.
FRENCH MERINOS, 75 cts. to $1,25 per yard.
DELAINES, POPLINS, and a great variety of other Dress Goods, embracing all the new novelties of the season, and will be sold cheap enough to insure sales.
BROWN DOMESTICS, 12½, 15 and 20 cts. per yard.
BLEACHED DOMESTICS, 12½, 15, 20 and 25 cts. per yard, and all other goods in proportion. Also, the largest and most varied stock of

CLOTHS,
CASSIMERES,
SATINETS,
TWEEDS,
AND KENTUCKY JEANS

I ever offered to the trade in this City, both as to price and quality.

Also a very fine assortment of White and Colored FLANNELS,

LADIES' CLOAKS,
BREAKFAST SHAWLS,
SQUARE AND LONG SHAWLS,

which will be sold at prices to suit my customers.

Ladies', Misses' and Children's TRIMMED AND UNTRIMMED HATS,—new styles, from 50 cents to $4,00 each.

Boots and Shoes, Boots and Shoes.

The largest and best stock I ever brought to the City, consisting, in part, of J. Miles & Sons' make, and others of equally high standing.

Ladies' Pegged Balmorals, from $1 to $2.
Ladies Sewed Balmorals, from $1,50 to $3,50.

CREECH'S is the place to come to buy your Boots and Shoes.

Hats, Hats, Hats,

From 75 cts. to $4,00. Don't stop until you come to CREECH'S to buy your Hats. In fact, I think I can meet the expectations of all my customers and the public generally, both as to price and quality of ALL Goods.

Now a few words to my customers and friends: You see a great many different styles of advertisements. Some say they are in "luck again;" some say they have "hit the nail on the head;" some "selling out at cost;" some to "make room for a new stock;" some one thing and some another. But allow me to say, whether I am in luck, or whether I hit the nail on the head, or whether I missed the nail entirely, or failed to advertise "selling out at cost," I have sold and my old stock, (while they are still hammering away over their old stock,) and have been North and bought a new stock. My goods are now in Store, and opened for inspection.

COME AND LOOK AT THEM.

I told my customers, six months ago, that I would sell goods as cheap as Yankee, Jew or Gentile, and I think I have made my word good.

I told the people to come to Creech's to buy their goods, that I would serve them right. Hundreds have come, and they are still coming from this and adjoining Counties. And I here take the privilege to say, I think they have shown their good judgment.

Don't forget to come to

DR. J. J. LAWRENCE—Dear Sir—Please send me immediately per Express to Tarboro, two dozen more bottles of your Rosadalis. I have carefully examed its Formula, and have used it in my practice in a number of cases. I am well pleased with it. I think it, beyond doubt, the best Alterative I ever used. I have tried it in several cases of Scrofula and Scrofulous Affections, &c., with much satisfaction to myself and patients. I have also used it in Secondary and Teritary Syphilis, [one a terrible case of eight years' standing,] in which it acted with surprising and satisfactory effect—making a quick and thorough cure. I have, therefore, no hesitation in recommending it to Physicians and others, as the most reliable Alterative now known.

Respectfully yours, &c.,

A Wonderful Cure of Scrofulous White Swelling.

HOME CERTIFICATE.

I hereby certify, that last September I was attacked with White Swelling of the left knee—and also with an enlargement of the glands of the neck—[one tumor reached a large size.] The swelling of the knee was enormous, and was attended with the most excruciating pains. I was so reduced that I was confined to my room over three months. My leg was so completely drawn up, that I could not bend it at all. I tried various remedies, and they failed to give me any relief. I was in this condition when I commenced taking Dr. Lawrence's Rosadalis. The swelling in the knee and neck began to subside before I took all of the first bottle. By the time I took the second bottle, the swelling of the neck entirely disappeared and that of the knee nearly so. After taking three bottles I found myself completely well—able to walk as well as ever, &c.

THE SENTINEL.

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 1, 1867.

ARRIVAL OF A LIVE GORILLA FROM AFRICA—THE BEAST AT BARNUM'S—WONDERFUL DISPLAY OF STRENGTH.

From the New York Post.

For the first time there is a live gorilla in New York—a gorilla like those of which Du Chaillu has told so many wonderful stories, in "Equatorial Africa" and "Ashango Land."

At a late hour yesterday afternoon there was an extraordinary excitement in the neighborhood of Barnum's Museum. The gorilla had arrived, and his roars attracted a crowd of spectators.

The animal was caught in the interior of Africa, and was put safely on board the sailing ship Harding, and conveyed to this port. The box in which it was caged during the voyage was made of teak-wood plank—the toughest material that could be found in Africa. A huge cart chain, fastened to the neck of the gorilla, passed through this box, and was nailed fast to the outside.

From the jarring the gorilla received yesterday during its transportation from the ship to the museum it became exasperated, and growled furiously during the trip.—After the box had been taken into the museum, Mr. Charles Brothwell, the museum carpenter, loosened the chain from the outside of the box, and by direction of Professor Davidson, attached to it a rope, by which the animal was to be led from the box to the cage, by running the rope through the bottom of the cage and then fastening the chain to a beam of the building beneath the cage.

The rope was attached, when the gorilla began pulling in his chain. Professor Davidson and Mr. Brothwell both grasped the chain, and several men behind grasped the rope, but their united efforts were unequal to the task. The animal with apparent ease pulled into his box both chain and rope, and untying the rope from the chain dropped it from a hole in the cage.

Mr. Brothwell then got the largest cage scraper in the building—a huge wrought iron bar, an inch and three-quarters thick, to which is attached a small spade—for the purpose of bringing out the end of the chain. This scraper had been used successfully in several contests with the lions of the establishment, which had vainly tried to make an impression upon it with their jaws.

Mr. Brothwell and Professor Davidson each took a scraper, and from the opposite ends of the cage endeavored to foil the gorilla, and grasp the end of the chain.—Finally the gorilla seized the bar which Mr. Brothwell held. Another man, who is noted for his muscular strength, came to the rescue, but the animal proved their superior, and beat the heavy piece of iron double, so that the ends touched.

During the effort, however, the chain was secured, and the box put to the cage, the animal entrapped, and his chain secured to the beams underneath.

During all this excitement the gorilla growled furiously, the sound resembling the roar of an excited lion.

All the beasts in the building became excited, and the place resounded with their cries. Women fainted and children cried, but the crowd would not leave the room until the manager ordered them to be put out by force. A large barricade was erected and the doorway blocked up.

The gorilla is now safely in the lion's cage, and calmed down. An immense chain, with a resistant force of six thousand pounds, is attached to the animal.

For five years past Mr. Barnum has been endeavoring to secure an animal of this species, and ordered his agent in Africa to secure one, without regard to cost.

Mr. B. F. Clayton, Mr. Barnum's agent, a few months since, wrote that he could secure one for $8,000, but that the British Government were making every exertion to secure it for the Zoological garden, in London.—Mr. Barnum sent word that he must have this one, if it cost a much greater sum. Accordingly the gorilla was brought to America, and is now safe at the museum.

When standing upright it is about five and a half feet in height, and is about the color of an elephant. Its face has more the appearance of a human being than of a monkey, with an eye exactly like that of a human being. Its hand is as delicate as that of a woman's, and it would not seem possible that there is in it such muscular power.

This morning it exhibited an intense hatred of Mr. Brothwell, who was yesterday instrumental in its capture.

Professor Davidson feeds the animal upon vegetables, but allows nothing of acid to be placed in the cage. If the gorilla becomes irritable it is soon quieted by placing a few cloves or nutmegs in its cage.

KIND INQUIRIES.

Cousin Kate was a sweet, wide-awake beauty of about seventeen, and she took it into her head to go down on Long Island to see some relations of hers, who had the misfortune to live there. Among those relations there chanced to be a young swain who had seen Kate on a previous occasion, and seeing, fell deeply in love with her.—He called at the house on the evening of her arrival, and she met him on the piazza where she was enjoying the evening air in company with two or three of her friends.

The poor fellow was so bashful that he could not find his tongue for some time. At length he stammered out:

"How's your mother?"

"Quite well, thank you."

Another silence on the part of Josh, during which Kate and her friends did the best they could to relieve the monotony. After waiting about fifteen minutes for him to commence to make himself agreeable, he again broke the spell by—

"How's your father?" which was answered much after the same fashion as the first one, and then followed the same silence like the other.

"How's your father and mother?" again put in the bashful lover.

"Quite well, both of them." This was followed by an exchange of glances and a suppressed smile.

This lasted some ten minutes more, during which Josh was fidgeting in his seat and stroking his Sunday hat. But at length another question came—

"How's your parents?"

This produced an explosion that made the woods ring.

A TOUCHING INCIDENT.—A young minister went out to preach, and observed, during his discourse, a lady who seemed much affected. After meeting he concluded to pay her a visit, and see what the impressions of her mind were.

He approached her thus:

"Well, madam, I see you were affected much to-day during preaching?"

"La me," said the lady. "I'll tell you.—About six years ago, me and my husband moved to this place, and all the property we had was a donkey. Husband he died, and me and the beast were left alone. At last the beast died, and to tell you the truth, your voice put me so much in mind of that dear old critter, that I couldn't help taking on and crying about it right in meeting."

FOR

DRIVING COTTON GINS.

It is SIMPLE, STRONG and COMPACT, and can be easily put together. We sold a large number last season and the demand is constantly increasing.

The following letter from Col. Hoop, of Surry County, speaks for itself:

* * * * * It is with much pleasure that I state, your Gin Horse Power bought last season ground an entire success.

I applied a 13 feet lever and 6 feet band wheel to a 45 saw Gin, and one pair of ordinary mules which improved on constant work, and with slow gait of team gave sufficiency of speed; a capacity to gin about 4,000 per day.

The wear and tear in ginning 60 bales of cotton is not perceivable—do not think it could be estimated at 2 per cent. It was put up and geared by one of the best machinists in the State, who pronounced it superior to any patent he had seen; also, several gentlemen familiar by long use of gins, have examined it and decided to lay aside their old powers and order this pattern of you.

RAILROADS.

ATLANTIC & N. C. RAILROAD
AND
NORTH CAROLINA
GRAND TRUNK RAILROAD,

From Charlotte and all Points on the N. Carolina and its Connecting Railroads, to the Seaboard at Newbern and Morehead City.

THE STATE OWNS THREE-FOURTHS OF the North Carolina Railroad and three-fourths of the ATLANTIC & N. C. RAILROAD. This is the

STATE LINE,

To its OWN SEAPORTS and on its OWN ROADS. All other lines are in opposition.

A six per cent dividend on this line will save the people from taxation $205,000 per annum.

Under a resolution of the Stockholders of the N. C. Railroad, all Freights are to go via Goldsboro', unless otherwise specially directed by shippers.

When at Goldsboro', you are only sixty miles from the shipping point, instead of one hundred and sixty via Weldon, and eighty via Wilmington. Our steamers are equal to any other line, both for Freight and Travel. Time as short as by any other, and as cheap.

THIS is the Line

To ENCOURAGE. You get dispatch, safety, but one handling, and less Railroad transportation than by any other line.

Three-fourths of the PROFITS made on this line go directly into the STATE TREASURY, and if encouraged, you will soon be relieved from heavy taxation at least two hundred and ninety-five thousand dollars.

The Railroads composing the N. C. GRAND TRUNK RAILWAY LINE have recently agreed to unite in a

GREAT THROUGH LINE

Route to all the Northern Markets, on equal terms and charges, via our own ports to and from the North.

Cars run through to all points without breaking bulk.

Notice to Shippers of Freight.

THE SEABOARD INLAND AIR LINE

Via Portsmouth, Va.,

IS THE ONLY DIRECT LINE BETWEEN Boston, New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore and the Carolinas.

It is express in point of speed and safety of Freights, being from

FORTY TO SEVENTY HOURS

in advance of all other lines, and at as low rates.

It offers daily communication with Baltimore, daily communication with Philadelphia.

Five Steamers each week to and from New York.

Two Steamers each week to and from Boston.

It is the only line having these advantages, and by which there is but one handling of freight.

Cars are loaded at the wharves in Portsmouth and are run through to destination.

Be careful to direct your Consignors to ship only

From Baltimore, by the Norfolk or Bay Line Steamers, foot of Union Dock.

From Philadelphia, by the Annamessic Line, Philadelphia, Wilmington and Baltimore Depot, or by Clyde's Line, 14 South Delaware Avenue.

From New York by the Old Dominion Steamship Line, Pier 37 North River.

From Boston, by the Norfolk Steamship Line, end of Central Wharf.

All losses, damages, or overcharges promptly adjusted on application to

JAS. McCARRICK,
Trans Agent, Portsmouth, Va.

Have your freight marked Via Portsmouth, Va., and in shipping to Philadelphia, marked Via Clyde's Line, or Via Annamessic.

DEMONSTRATORS OF ANATOMY.

WM. C. NICHOLS, M. D., C. J. BICKHAM, M. D.

The Thirtieth Annual Course of Instruction in this Institution will begin November 11th and end in the following March. Preliminary lectures will be given daily in the Charity Hospital, commencing October 15th, at which time also the new and extensive rooms for Practical Anatomy will be opened. The facilities of the school, heretofore unsurpassed, have, by the liberality of the State Legislature, been greatly increased during the past year, so that now EVERY CHAIR HAS ATTACHED TO IT A PRACTICAL DEPARTMENT, in which students are taught to observe for themselves the facts set forth in the Lecture Room.

Fees for all the Lectures, $140; Matriculation, (paid but once) $5; Practical Anatomy, $10.—Payment required in advance.

A Cheap Cotton Press.

FARMERS, BEFORE YOU BUY A PRESS OR build a Screw, enquire into the merits of the

GODWIN COTTON PRESS.

Hear what the following reliable gentlemen say:

I have seen Mr. J. H. Godwin's Cotton Press work at Mr. P. E. Smith's plantation, and it does all that he says it does in his advertisement, and more. I think it superior to any other mode of packing Cotton, and saves both time and labor.

W. R. SMITH.

I have used the above mentioned Press, and consider it the best I ever saw for packing Cotton.

THOS. J. VAUGHAN.

I have packed about 100 bales of Cotton with Mr. J. H. Godwin's Cotton Press, and take pleasure in recommending it to the farmers as a great labor-saving machine. It does not cost more than half as much as a Screw, and is worth twice as much.

It is so convenient, and takes fewer hands to do as much work as a Screw. I would pay the price of a Press rather than allow a man to put up a screw on my place for nothing.

D. EDMONDSON.

I have used the above mentioned Cotton Press, and it does better than a Screw. Takes less hands, does not waste Cotton, and is much cheaper.

J. H. CURRY,
Sup't W. H. Smith's Plantation.

I have packed about 70 bales with Godwin's Cotton Press, and am certain it is the best, cheapest, most compact and durable Press in existence, costing only half, at first, and lasting twice as long as a screw.

PETER E. SMITH,

I have never seen the Cotton Press of Mr. Jno. H. Godwin at work, but have no doubt, from the certificates of the gentlemen above, that it performs all they say of it. I know them to be gentlemen of character and veracity, and that their statements are entitled to credit.

RICHARD H. SMITH,

The last name is one of our most honorable and respectable citizens, well known as a former member of the Legislature. I offer this PRESS as combining more advantages for packing than any now in use; it is adapted to large or small farms, and is so simple and cheap, that any good mechanic can build it. It is well adapted to

WATER-POWER.

It is 10 or 11 feet wide, 3 feet and 3 inches thick; top of frame above ground, 16 feet; highest point of Lever, 18 or 19 feet. The platform on which the bale is turned off, is 10 feet above ground.

Length of box, 10 feet in the clear.

Length of bale 5 feet, by 2 feet 4 inches. Weight 500 or 600 lbs. It is put up flat against the Lint Room, thereby preventing the scattering of the Cotton and need of baskets.

The Press is chiefly built of scantlings.

The inventor has spared no pains in his experiments to make it practicable, convenient and cheap. I charge

$25 for a Single Right.

The total cost, including cover and everything, is about $150. Much of that, farmers are not in the habit of including as cost.

I think I can sell County rights at about $10 by the hundred.

SUPPLEMENT TO THE STEVENS-SHERMAN-SHELLABARGER BILL.

AN ACT supplemental to an act entitled an act to provide for the more efficient government of the rebel States, passed March 2, 1867, and to facilitate restoration.

Be it enacted &c., That before the first day of September, 1867, the commanding general in each district defined by the act to provide for the more efficient government of the rebel States, approved March 2, 1867, shall cause a registration to be made of the male citizens of the United States, twenty-one years of age, and upwards, resident in each county or parish in the State or States included in his district, which registration will include only those persons who are qualified to vote for delegates by the act aforesaid, and who shall have taken and subscribed the following oath or affirmation:

"I, ——, do solemnly swear, or affirm, in the presence of Almighty God, that I am a citizen of the State of ——; that I have resided in said State for —— months next preceding this day, and now reside in the county of ——, or the parish of ——, in said State, as the case may be; that I am 21 years old; that I have not been disfranchised for participation in any rebellion or civil war against the United States, nor for felony committed against the laws of any State or of the United States; that I have never been a member of any State Legislature, or held any executive or judicial office in any State, and afterwards engaged in insurrection and rebellion against the United States, and given aid or comfort to the enemies thereof; that I have never taken an oath as a member of Congress of the United States, or as an officer of the United States, or as a member of any State Legislature, or as an executive or judicial officer of any State, to support the Constitution of the United States, and afterwards engaged in insurrection or rebellion against the United States, or given aid or comfort to the enemies thereof; that I will faithfully support the Constitution and obey the laws of the United States, and will to the best of my ability, encourage others so to do. So help me God."

which oath or affirmation may be administered by any registering officer.

Sec. 2. That after the completion of the registration hereby provided for in any State at such time and place therein as the commanding general shall appoint and direct, of which at least thirty day's public notice shall be given, an election shall be held of delegates to a convention for the purpose of establishing a constitution and civil government for such State loyal to the Union; said convention in each State, except Virginia, to consist of the same number of members as the most numerous branch of the State Legislature of such State in the year 1860, to be apportioned among the several districts, counties, or parishes of such State by the commanding general, giving to each, representation in the ratio of voters registered as aforesaid as nearly as may be. The convention in Virginia shall consist of the same number of members as represented the territory now constituting Virginia in the most numerous branch of the Legislature of said State in the year 1860, to be apportioned as aforesaid.

Sec. 3. That at such election the registered voters of each State shall vote for or against a convention to form a constitution thereof under this act. Those voting in favor of such a convention shall have written or printed on the ballots by which they vote for delegates, as aforesaid, the words "for a convention;" and those voting against such a convention shall have written or printed on such ballots the words "against a convention." The persons appointed to superintend said election, and to make return of the votes given thereat, as herein provided, shall count and make return of the votes given for and against a convention; and the commanding general, to whom the same shall have been returned, shall ascertain and declare the total vote in each State for and against a convention. If a majority of the votes given on that question shall be for a convention, then a convention shall be held, as hereinafter provided; but if a majority of said votes shall be against a convention, then no convention shall be held under this act: Provided, That such convention shall not be held unless a majority of all such registered voters shall have voted on the question of holding such convention.

Sec. 4. That the commanding general of each district shall appoint such loyal officers or persons as may be necessary, not exceeding three in each election district, in any State, to make and complete the registration, superintend the election, and make return to him of the votes, lists of voters and of the persons elected as delegates by a plurality of the votes cast at said election; and upon receiving said returns he shall open the same, ascertain the persons elected as delegates according to the returns of the officers who conducted said election, and make proclamation thereof; and if a majority of the votes given on that question shall be for a convention, the commanding general within sixty days from the date of election, shall notify the delegates to assemble in convention at a time and place to be mentioned in the notification, and said convention, when organized, shall proceed to frame a Constitution and civil government according to the provisions of this act, and the act to which it is supplementary; and when the same shall have been so framed, said Constitution shall be submitted by the convention for ratification to the persons registered under the provisions of this act, at an election to be conducted by the officers, or persons appointed by the commanding general as hereinbefore provided, and to be held after the expiration of thirty days from the date of notice thereof to be given by said convention, and the returns thereof shall be made to the commanding general of the district.

Sec. 5. That if, according to said returns, the constitution shall be ratified by a majority of the votes of the registered electors qualified as herein specified, cast at said election, at least one-half of all the registered voters voting upon the question of such ratification, the president of the convention shall transmit a copy of the same, duly certified, to the President of the United States, who shall forthwith transmit the same to Congress, if then in session, and if not in session, then immediately upon its next assembling; and if it shall moreover appear to Congress that the election was one at which all the registered and qualified electors in the State had an opportunity to vote freely and without restraint, fear or the influence of fraud, and if Congress shall be satisfied that such constitution meets the approval of a majority of the qualified electors in the State, and if the said constitution shall be declared by Congress to be in conformity with the provisions of the act to which this is supplementary, and the other provisions of said act shall have been complied with, and the said constitution shall be approved by Congress, the State shall be declared entitled to representation, and Senators and Representatives shall be admitted therefrom as herein provided.

Sec. 6. That all elections in the States mentioned in the said "Act to provide for the more efficient government of the rebel States," shall, during the operation of said act, be by ballot; and all officers making the said registration of voters and conducting said elections shall, before entering upon the discharge of their duties, subscribe an oath faithfully to perform the duties of their said office, and the oath prescribed by the act approved July 2, 1862, entitled "An act to prescribe an oath of office:" Provided, That if any person shall knowingly and falsely take and subscribe any oath in this act prescribed, such person so offending, and being thereof duly convicted, shall be subject to the pains, penalties and disabilities which by law are provided for the punishment of the crime of wilful and corrupt perjury.

Sec. 7. That all expenses incurred by the several commanding generals, or by virtue of any orders issued or appointments made by them under or by virtue of this act, shall be paid out of any moneys in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated.

Sec. 8. That the convention for each State shall prescribe the fees, salary, and compensation to be paid to all delegates and other officers, and agents herein authorized or necessary to carry into effect the purposes of this act, not herein otherwise provided for, and shall provide for the levy and collection of such taxes on the property in such State as may be necessary to pay the same.

Sec. 9. That the word "article" in the sixth section of the act to which this is supplementary shall be construed to mean "section."

THE FIRE EXTINGUISHER.

This Portable, Self-Acting Fire Engine

IS OFFERED TO THE Public as a ready, certain and speedy means of preventing LARGE CONFLAGRATIONS.

Until the invention of the

Portable, Self-Acting Fire Engine,

Fires have been met by means too slow, too late and too cumbrous. But few persons in this country have the advantage of large hand or Steam Fire Engines, and those few often suffer a total loss of their property by reason of the great length of time consumed in sending for and getting them into working order.

BUT NOT SO WITH THE FIRE EXTINGUISHER,

which, being kept charged and standing in your House, Store or Factory, is always Ready for Instant Service.

The fire can be extinguished and your property saved without loss or damage, or even an alarm of Fire.

The first few minutes of conflagration decide the fate of the property; "a little fire is quickly put out, which, being suffered, rivers cannot quench."

THE EXTINGUISHER, being very simple in its operation, and entirely self-propelling, requires no previous skill or practice to operate it, and being so light, portable and self-acting, is capable of being used in any place, by any person, male or female.

It puts out all fires, arising from whatever cause.

You are saved from the immense water damage caused by large Engines.

You can effect insurance on your property

At Lower Rates,

if protected by the Extinguisher.

The Extinguisher is no humbug, as thousands of good men in Europe and America will testify. I have already put these little Engines into some of our best Factories and largest Schools in N. C.

No House, Store, Factory or Corporation is safe without them.

The price is as nothing, compared with the protection they afford.

Send for a Circular.
